Sisters of St. Martha of Prince Edward Island and Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception, New Brunswick

Coordinator of Earth Justice Ministry

The Sisters of St. Martha of Prince Edward Island and the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception of New Brunswick are seeking a Coordinator for Earth Justice Ministry. Social and ecological justice are essential values to our Congregations. The Coordinator will enable us to move into the future with renewed energy and commitment to continue to promote these values through education, advocacy and deepening our scientific and theological understanding that leads to action.

The Coordinator creates and facilitates learning opportunities, experiences, methods and processes; coordinates actions directed by each of our Earth Justice Committees; and represents both congregations at regional and national conferences and public events related to social and ecological justice.

The successful candidate will have post-secondary education with a preference for a BA or MA degree in a related field. Studies in Adult Education is an asset. This position requires 3 to 5 years of experience in justice, ecology or a related area; excellent written and oral communication skills, a working knowledge of Office 365, as well as IT and social media skills. A good working knowledge or an openness to learn about Catholic Social Teaching and the Living Universe Story is preferred. The candidate must be able to do some travelling to get to know our congregations.

If you possess the desired qualifications and would like to apply, please email Sister Gemma Dunn srgemma@eastlink.ca or Sister Mary Beth McCurdy marybeth@sistersofcharityic.com for more information about the position and about the Earth Justice Ministry. Your emailed application should be saved as one PDF file and contain cover letter, resume and three reference names with contact information. Please include Coordinator Social/Ecological Justice in the subject line.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted
